Criminal Orders in a Virtual Courtroom

CRIMINAL PROTECTIVE ORDERS

1. Prior to a hearing District Attorney's office will email the criminal protective order ("CPO") to the Court and parties. The designated Court email is crimorders@yolo.courts.ca.gov.
2. The clerk will print out the CPO and have it available for the judge.
3. If ordered, the judge will sign the CPO.
4. The clerk will file stamp the CPO, scan the order and enter into the Courts case management system.
5. The clerk will email the signed and processed CPO to the District Attorney's office at Alvina.tzang@yolocounty.org and Carolyn.plumbo@yolocounty.org.
6. The District Attorney's office will send the CPO to all parties and to the jail for service on the defendant.

SUPERVISED OR AGREEMENTS

1. Judge orders Supervised Own Recognizance ("SOR") on the record.
2. The Probation Officer sends the contract to the jail for the defendant's signature.
3. The Sheriff's Department sends the SOR back to Probation.
4. Nothing back to the court

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF PROBATION

1. The Probation Officer sends the Terms and Conditions of Probation ("TOC") to the Court. The designated Court email address is: crimorders@yolo.courts.ca.gov.
2. The Judge reviews the TOC on the record.
3. The Defendant verbally agrees on the record and the Clerk will note the verbal agreement on the minute order.
4. The Judge signs the TOC.
5. The Clerk will email the TOC to Rachelle.gayton@yolocounty.org
6. The Probation Officer will get the defendant's signature.
7. The Probation Officer emails the executed TOC to the Court for processing at crimorders@yolo.courts.ca.gov.
