

Superior Court of the State of California, County of Yolo

Pursuant to Administrative Order No. 2016-28:

All family law cases that have contested issues of child custody and/or visitation both parties shall complete an orientation on Child Custody Recommending Counseling (“CCRC”).

The orientation consists of the following:

- (1) Parties complete the Family Law Information Form; and
- (2) Complete the online orientation program “Parenting After Separation.”
 - a) The course is available free of charge at www.familieschange.ca.gov.
 - b) Computers are also available at the Yolo Superior Court Family Law Facilitator/Self-Help/Family Court Services Center daily from 8:00 – 1:00 p.m.
- (3) Proof of completion must be submitted to the Family Court Services Manager located in the Family Law Facilitator/Self-Help/Family Court Services Center.

Once proof of completion has been received you will be assigned a counselor.

If more information you can call the Self Help/Facilitator Office at (530) 406-6720.